Ottawa University Theatre presents *Fuddy Meers

Ottawa University Theatre presents Fuddy Meers, a new comedy by David Lindsay-Abaire. The story follows Claire who has a rare form of psychogenic amnesia that erases her memory whenever she goes to sleep. If Claire isn't enough to keep your interest, her bizarre companions certainly are! Look for a limping, lisping, half-blind, half-deaf man in a ski mask or a dim-witted thug with a foul-mouthed hand puppet and don't forget Claire's chipper, driven husband and her perpetually stoned son. A cast of OU theatre students, directed by Technical Director Christopher M. Massey, is eager to share this tale with you.

Production dates for Fuddy Meers are Thursday, April 22 through Saturday, April 24 in Ottawa University's Administration Building Auditorium. The house will open at 7:30 p.m. and the show will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets are $10 for adults and $7 for students. For more information call the OU Theatre box office at (785) 242-5200 x5037.
