Ottawa University Theatre presents An Evening of One Acts

Ottawa University presents an evening of one-act plays directed by OU students. Larry Peters' spring directing class offers its final projects Thursday and Friday, April 29 and 30. The class consists of three students, Jeremiah Dean, Lynette Purtle and Ashley Witten.

The three students chose a one-act play and developed a directing style. They were in charge of casting, directing and doing everything possible to make the night of one-acts come together smoothly.

Girls We Have Known is directed by Jeremiah Dean and will depict the story of two men making a cross-country trip. Graceland directed by Ashley Witten shows how two complete strangers learn about each other while waiting for Elvis' home to open to the public. The Gift of the Magi directed by Lynette Purtle is a compassionate story of true love and sacrifice.

An Evening of One Acts will be Thursday and Friday, April 29 and 30. The house opens at 7:30 p.m. and the show begins at 8 in the OU Administration Building Auditorium. Admission is free. Language and content may not be suitable for all audiences.
